Forecast for Sunday 27 Nov 2022

Weather: Rain clearing in early hours, then dry with clear spells, though generally a lot of cloud. Then a bright and mostly dry day, but rather cloudy, with large amounts of high cloud and some hazy sunshine. A few showers will break out in the afternoon, mostly over western hills but potentially heavy and thundery showers will spread from the west after dusk.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 10% in early hours, then generally 80%, but 30% after dark.

Low cloud and visibility: Mostly good visibility even at height through much of the day with little or no cloud over the summits, but perhaps poor in early rain and in showers later and also very poor at height then with accompanying cloud generally extensive above 500m.
